You say party! We say Make It!

It is time once again to get your craft show party hats on! That's right, Make It! The Handmade Revolution is back in Edmonton just in time for all your holiday shopping needs. From November 17-20 you will find over 110 artisans and designers from all over Canada at the Alberta Aviation Hangar. This will be our largest extravaganza filling every crevice of the hangar with art, fashion, accessories and awesome crafty goodness. To top it all off we also have some fabulous live musical performances throughout the weekend. Yep, it is going to be the biggest and best craft show party in town!

Make It is the largest independent retail show of its kind in Western Canada with biannual shows in Vancouver and Edmonton. It is owned and operated in Vancouver by Jenna and Chandler Herbut who are a brother/sister team devoted to creating positive opportunities for local artists and designers. As designers themselves they aim to re-brand craft shows and create a shopping event that give conscious Edmontonians the opportunity to buy unique, ethically made goods from top artisans from all over Canada.

Here is a sneak preview of some of our favorite exhibitors:

Bywa Bags

bywabagdesigns.com

When you choose a bywa bag you are not just helping create a sustainable future for everyone, but you can also show your own unique style by carrying a beautifully handcrafted bag that is the only one of its kind.

Creampuff by gg

creampuffbygg.com

CREAMPUFF GIRLIE BOXER SHORTS - Hybrid of sport shorts & sexy pretty lingerie to wear everyday! Vintage pinup-girl style Creampuffs are one of the cutest & most comfortable things you'll ever wear!

The Newget Kompany

newget.ca

Handmade goodness that's a delicate balance of quality chocolate with sweet and savory flavours. Not too sweet, surprisingly light, and highly addictive.
