You say party! We say Make It!

It is time once again to get your craft show party hats on! That's right, Make It! The Handmade Revolution is back in Vancouver just in time for all your holiday shopping needs. From November 24-27 you will find over 110 artisans and designers from all over Canada at the Croatian Cultural Centre. This will be our largest extravaganza yet, filling 3 rooms with art, fashion, accessories and awesome crafty goodness. To top it all off we also have some fabulous live musical performances throughout the weekend and 2 bars serving up your favorite adult beverages. Yep, it is going to be the biggest and best craft show party in town!

Make It is the largest independent retail show of its kind in Western Canada with biannual shows in Vancouver and Edmonton. It is owned and operated in Gastown by Jenna and Chandler Herbut who are a brother/sister team devoted to creating positive opportunities for local artists and designers. As designers themselves they aim to re-brand craft shows and create a shopping event that give conscious Vancouverites the opportunity to buy unique, ethically made goods from top artisans from all over Canada.

Here is a sneak preview of some of our favorite exhibitors:

KT & Paul

ktandpaul.com

KT&Paul Hand print all there own products, using top quality, environmentally friendly dyes. All the designs are their originals many hand drawn, inspired by pattern, music and art.

Amanda Parker

amandaparker.ca

Amanda's work with glass forming began in 2007 and it has proven to be an exceptional medium to convey her ideas and concepts. With a multidisciplinary artistic background including painting, sculpture, and interior design, she often draws on her broad range of skills to create compelling works.

Heyday Design

heydaydesign.ca

We've been in love with vintage canning jars ever since finding our first 'improved gem' jar in the summer of 2008; since then, we've discovered an impressive array of styles in the cupboards and basements of our grandparents as well as, luckily, the odd thrift store.

French Made Baking

frenchmadebaking.com

Our mission is to introduce people living in the "best place on Earth" to the elegance and sensations of authentic traditional French pastries, using only the best natural ingredients, without any additives or preservatives.
